K9 Unit - Resume for Police Patrol/Narcotics Canine

Canine Handler – Officer Richard Hernandez

Canine Name – Elias	Canine Breed – German shepherd	Sex - Male
Color – Black/Tan	Weight – 85 pounds	Age - 5

Training – New Castle County Police Canine Academy – 01/06 to 07/06, basic narcotics and patrol certification training. Canine was trained in different climates, time of day, inside and outside residential/commercial buildings, motor vehicles, wooded areas, parks, constructions sites, etc.

Certifications – Basic patrol / and scent training certificates (available on request)

Certifying Authority – Police Canine Instructor, Corporal Terrence O’Conner (NCPD) / Corporal Mark Tobin (NCPD)

Narcotics Detection – Elias is certified in detection of the following controlled dangerous substances: marijuana, cocaine (crack), heroin, methamphetamine, MDMA (ecstasy). Elias will make an aggressive indication by scratching and sniffing on the odor of these substances. Indications are made to be aggressive, where there would be a 100% absolute that the canine is indicating on the odor of the above mentioned substances and those substances only. Elias has located a total of over 400 narcotics finds during the six month basic training period. Elias has received recertification in narcotics detection/patrol through monthly mandatory in service training from 08/06 to present.

Narcotics finds – (vehicles/buildings)

- 2006 – over 450
- 2007 – 76
- 2008 – 82
- 2009 - 46
- 2010 - 10

Patrol- Elias is certified in performing the following patrol police canine functions: tracking for wanted/missing/endangered persons, off lead area searches for wanted persons, building searches, article searches (evidence), demonstrations, obedience.

Apprehensions – 7
